

Morse code at the present 5 wpm is not a hardship or a barrier to the hobby of amateur radio. It still serves as a potential useful part of communications, and has a place in the hobby of amateur radio.